“Outdoor Cookers, Gas Grills and Gas Lights provided with personal service and expertise since 1977”

ADGAS Outdoor Cooking Products provides a complete line of outdoor cooking and gas products, including gas barbecues, outdoor cookers, outdoor kitchens and gas lights.

Founded in 1977 by Paul Preau, ADGAS has served the metropolitan New Orleans area specializing in sales, installation and repair of gas barbecues and gas lights.

Today, this family business strives to complete the outdoor cooking experience, expanding its product line to include the “Cook Me Somethin’ Mister™” New Orleans style cooking and food products. This line currently offers a cast-iron pot and burner combo and jambalaya mix, perfect for tailgating.

Our customers can expect to receive a long-lasting, durable product that will allow them to cook with confidence.
