

COMMUNITY BUSINESS PARTNERS Memorandum of Understanding

Thank you! We appreciate your partnership in Lemonade Day 2012!

Your involvement will allow us to reach the children in your program and offer them an opportunity to learn valuable life skills in a fun, experiential program that involves and bonds the entire community!

As a Lemonade Day Community Partner, I agree to the following commitments:

- Promote Lemonade Day throughout the community.
- Hyperlink Lemonade Day on my organization's website and social media sites.
- Provide opportunities for your employees to register their children to participate in Lemonade Day.
- Please check the following that apply:
 - I am willing to allow a Lemonade Day youth to locate their lemonade stand at my place of business on Lemonade Day.
 - I am willing to host a Lemonade Day workshop to my employees' children and/or in partnership with a local youth organization or school.
 - I am willing to allow my employees to volunteer for Lemonade Day as part of their community service during a designated number of work hours.
 - I would like to provide financial support for Lemonade Day.
 - I would like to provide in-kind services for Lemonade Day.
 - I would like my business to be designated as a backpack pick-up location.
- Submit your organization's logo to Dana Hansel at danahansel@cox.net in Jpg (for website)
- Appoint a Lemonade Day Coordinator within your organization.
- Share special stories for media consideration to Dana Hansel at danahansel@cox.net.

We value your partnership and thank you for the big role you will play in making a positive impact on the lives of the children in our city through Lemonade Day!
